

During 2010 and 2011, ACML continued to develop the second version "1.1" of ALIBKAKIAN and called it LIBRARIAN A in three languages: Arabic, English and French, with the help of purely Egyptian hands, under the supervision of a group of selected professors of Library and Information Science (LIS) and with the help of experts in sophisticated software development.

ACML is really proud to offer this product to Egypt and the Arab region. This software is built on latest trends
